Your e-PIT is waiting for you

podatki.gov.pl

In 2025, the Your e-PIT service is also available to entrepreneurs!

In the tax return for 2024, you will once again declare your revenue from business activity and special branches of agricultural production.

PIT-36 – e.g. from business activity and special branches of agricultural production taxed according to the tax scale, from old-age and disability pensions from abroad, and from non-registered activity

PIT-36L – from business activity and special branches of agricultural production subject to flat tax

PIT-28 – from business activity subject lump-sum tax, from ordinary lease, usufructuary lease or under other similar contracts and from the sale of processed plant or animal products

You will find there, among others, data from the last year's tax returns as well as data held by the office, such as public benefit organization (OPP) data, your children's data, and information on your advance tax payments. Check your data.

- complete your PIT-28, PIT-36 and PIT-36L tax returns
- accept and submit the completed tax return.

Make sure to download the Official Confirmation of Receipt (UPO).

Note! PIT-36, PIT-36L and PIT-28 tax returns will not be automatically accepted.

If you have tax to pay, you will find your tax micro-account in the service.

Your e-PIT is your annual tax return prepared by the tax office.

You can find your e-PIT at podatki.gov.pl in the e-Tax Office service. Your tax return for 2024 will be available from 15 February.

The service is also available in English and Ukrainian.

How to use the service

1. Log in to e-Tax Office at podatki.gov.pl and select the Your e-PIT service.

You can log in in two ways:

→ using login.gov.pl i.e. trusted profile, mObywatel, e-ID or electronic banking

By logging in via login.gov.pl you will have access to all e-Tax Office services and your data.

→ enter your data:

✓ PESEL (NIP and date of birth)

✓ revenue amount from your return for 2023

✓ revenue amount from one of the forms from your employers (e.g. PIT-11) for 2024 and confirm with the amount of tax overpayment/tax to pay from your 2023 tax return.

2. Choose the form relevant for the type of your income.

Remember! The choice of form affects the settlement method in the service, e.g.:

PIT-37 – for income from employment contracts, contracts for specific work or

PIT-38 – for capital gains Select Your e-PIT

You will find there information from your tax remitter/employer, data from the last year's tax returns, such as the public benefit organization (OPP) information, your bank account number if your tax return results in an overpayment, and in PIT-37 or PIT-36 – also child relief.

Check your data.

3 Now you can:

→ accept the tax return with no changes and download the Official Confirmation of Receipt (UPO)

→ change or indicate the OPP to which you want to donate 1.5% of your tax

→ change your tax return

✓ for PIT-37 or PIT-36, if you are not filing individually, change the filing method to:

– jointly with your spouse

– as a single parent

– you can also add or modify other data, e.g., donation deductions, rehabilitation expenses, contributions to the individual pension security account (IKZE), update the data qualifying for the relief for families 4+, or specify an additional refund for child relief

1. Accept and submit the tax return
2. Now you can download the Official Confirmation of Receipt (UPO)

→ reject the tax relief and file on your own in a different way than using the Your e-PIT service. In this case, the tax return prepared by the tax office will not be taken into account

✗ do nothing – in that case, on 30 April, your tax return prepared by the tax office will be considered filed.
